

Which Floral Dress Came to Impress?

The 2020 Emmy's on Sept. 20th was blooming from home this year! And these women were still serving us looks. Seems like the seasons are overlapping and flowers are sprouting early this year. We are seeing a floral theme, all applied in such unique forms. Each outfit flatters these women; however, Kerry Washington shows out in her white dress with floral detailing, and unique draping. She pairs it with some black peep-toed heels which does not take away from the beauty of the dress.

Kerry Washington
IN OSCAR DE LA RENTA

Kerry stole the show in this unique silhouette and playful, chic look. Giving us legs for days! The use of floral is creative and purposeful.

H.E.R.
IN VERA WANG

H.E.R., giving us boss woman vibes. Catching all our eyes in this fuchsia pink. This qipao-inspired dress is everything!

Although this year's Emmy's were not traditional, celebrities and award winners did not disappoint. Kerry's custom dress caught our attention, thanks to her Instagram post!
